- Public Comments and Concerns

- * Appreciation by some residents was expressed in regards to review and reassessment of fees related to homes with easements.
- * Resident Debbie Smith reports she made a call to Lakeview PD to non-emergent line and later received a visit from Chief Savage advising that matters of non-emergent issues / trespassing at the park, etc. should be handled initially by contacting the CLFCA Board of Trustees. Ms. Smith, as well as many residents in attendance voiced concerns for safety of all neighbors, including Board members approaching people in Baronridge Park, especially in the late evenings /night. Board members agreed and stated further clarification on this matter will need to be addressed through input from both Lakeview and Pasadena Police Departments.

- * Alan Bates reports he contacted the police department regarding people at the dock at Baronridge Park using a generator and lights at approximately 11:15 p.m.
- * One resident brought up that Shore Acres has a gate at their dock with a code needed to allow access for dock use.
- * Extension of pool hours was brought up. Terrell Culpepper provided some insight regarding how many communities insurance rates are kept affordable by maintaining lifeguards at all times the pool remains open and that with the idea of extended hours of swim at your own risk the rates increased dramatically at varied intervals in those communities. Mr. Culpepper as states his daughter is a lifeguard and discussed using the lifeguards as sources for suggestion / insight regarding the pool, its functionality as well as some thoughts regarding traffic patterns on the side streets by the pool since they may notice an increase at various times of the day since they are there routinely.
- * Neighborhood Watch program was discussed and ways to improve overall community awareness and safety of residents.
- * Elena Bryant reminded everyone that National Night Out is coming up in the near future and that getting out and meeting our neighbors, being aware of our environment and looking out for one another is a great method to improve security.
- * Margaret Sample(Baronridge) requested that her property assessment be reviewed.
- * Don Wirt states that he and other members of the Senior Tennis League have been working on improvements on the tennis courts and backboard and will submit receipts for supplies. Questions were also posed regarding court resurfacing.
- * Louise Toole expressed thanks for morning swim and lifeguards and recommended reinstatement of the sign in sheet at the pool and potential issuing of family pool passes to help control use of the pool by non-residents.
- * Hank Ramm voiced his appreciation for the volunteerism of the Board and all they do for the community. He also expressed concern for some areas of landscaping not being addressed by our current landscape company and suggested that new bids be considered for upcoming landscaping and its management and possible appointment by the Board of a member to act as a Contractor Manager.
- * Barbara Whelton expressed appreciation of the Board members, and thankfulness regarding all those involved in maintaining morning swim. She also was interested in the possibility of restarting the CLF Community Newsletter.
- * Mike Robertson encouraged residents to use the sign out sheet to note their emails to help with information sharing as well as considering sites like Blackboard Connect. Mr. Robertson also had questions related to Bylaws, and improvements regarding their clarity in the future especially in regards to elections.
- * Stephanie Friedman stated she has noticed an increased use of the tennis courts recently and that it is nice to see the kids out there playing and teams practicing.

- * Debbie Smith and Arnold McDaniel contested the validity of the election process and voiced that they did not feel the residents, especially residents who may have been on vacation or not registered on the CLFCA website at the time the Newsletters were mailed out, had adequate notice of the election, absentee voting or proxy process. Debbie states that she feels the election gave some candidates an unfair advantage regarding proxies since some residents may not have seen the email or information on the website that was presented after the absentee ballot information was issued if they didn't review the information on the website or check their email. Both Debbie and Arnold voiced that they felt the election should be held again with more notice and more information on the processes of the election provided. The Board responded by advising that the Texas Property Code and CLFCA Bylaws had been followed and the election process given due diligence in regards to all matters including, but not limited to time frame of notices. It was noted that the notice of annual meeting, call for candidates and election information went out in the community newsletter via U.S. Postal Service as required and included information stating that all further information regarding the election would be posted on the CLFC website and/or emailed to all registered users on the site. It was also noted that the contact information of Board of Trustees was listed in the Newsletter should any residents have had questions.

Board agrees that this is a large purchase and may require further information prior to approving bid for pump replacement. Pool pump replacement to be reviewed and readdressed at a later date after additional info can be obtained.
